During the opening ceremony a keynote address about “Communism in Albania – Comparative Perspectives” will be delivered by Prof. Oliver Schmitt, Austrian historian. “Communism in Albania is often viewed either as a specific special case, and thus as exotic among the communist regimes; or the country is neglected in comparative studies on communism. The lecture explores the question of how communism in Albania can be incorporated into comparative analyzes and thus made more visible”, - Oliver Schmitt.

The ceremony will be hosted by IDMC and KAS and it is a public event, open via Facebook and Youtube to everyone who has an interest in the issue of dealing with the communist past.

December 2020 marked the 30th anniversary of the multi-party system establishment and the communist system disbandment in Albania. Our country has been through - ever since 1990 - a long complex transformation and reformation process, in an attempt to build a new system underpinned by the rule of law, free market economy, Euro-Atlantic integration and functional democracy.

The Konrad Adenauer Foundation and the Institute for Political Studies are organizing this scientific conference, which will focus on the debate on transition balance sheet, on the ratio between expectations in the 90’, capacities and tools available, as well as on outcomes and reflections on the verge of these three decades lapsing.

The graphic will be supplemented by data, photos and testimonies of former political prisoners or internees who suffered during the communist dictatorship in Albania. Additionally, this project should serve as a guideline for foreign scientists who are interested in the communist past of Albania. The digital map is a production of ‘kujto.al’ foundation and KAS.

DOCUMENTARY SCREENING: “FROM SCANDERBEG TO ENVER HOXHA”
Venue: Zoom & IDMC Social Media Live

The documentary “From Skanderbeg to Enver Hoxha” was shot by Austrian journalists in the years 1983-1984 in communist Albania. The author of this documentary, journalist Paul Lendvai, offers the public a panorama of the most isolated country in Europe at the time, the daily life and the propagandist attitude of the academic and political elites in support of the regime. The film crew was monitored all the time by Security staff, the shooting locations were clearly defined, as well as the characters chosen to speak. The documentary, however, offers a critical look at the Albanian dictatorship in the face of official propaganda. Paul Lendvai was born in Budapest but has been living in Vienna since 1957. He is a very well known publicist, has a very long career as a journalist, correspondent for important Austrian media.
The focus of his work has been especially on developments in Central and Eastern Europe. For his autobiographical book "Auf schéarzen Listen. Erlebnisse eines Mitteleuropäers" ("On the blacklists. The experiences of a European", Paul Lendvai was awarded the Donauland Prize in 1997).

The object of this publication by Xhafer Sadiku is to shed light on the political reforms that the state and the communist regime used on the kulak. Expropriations, extraordinary taxes, defamation, isolation, imprisonment, executions were tools for economic liquidation, political isolation and physical elimination. The study relies on sources from the Archive of the Albanian Labor Party, the Central State Archive, the Archive of the Ministry of Internal Affairs and the historical literature.
